

Submissions to Coyote Papers should satisfy the following requirements:

General Requirements:

Paper: US lettersize

Font: Times New Roman

Fontsize: 11pt

Linespacing: 1.5

Margins: 1.5 inches on the sides, 1 inch on top & bottom

Reference list style: APA, with inline citations (Author Year:Page)

Page Limit: 8 pages

Glosses: Follow the Leipzig Glossing Rules

Title block: See example files.

Examples

Examples should be numbered throughout the document, if multiple examples occur in the same environment they should be numbered as follows:

- (1) a. One example
- b. Two examples
- c. Three examples

Figures are to be numbered as examples. All figures and examples are to be part of the body of the text.

Sections

Sections are to be numbered, starting from 1, with the exception of the introduction and the discussion. Section headings should be flushed left, boldface and 14.5pt.

The list of references is to be labelled “References” and will not count toward the page limit of 8 pages.

Misc.

If you use IPA fonts, please stick to Unicode or non-proprietary fonts.

Use footnotes, not endnotes.

For acknowledgments, have an asterisk* footnote after the author on the title block.

Templates

For an example of how this should look, use the “coyote example file.pdf” file. Most of this work will be done by our templates. See our “Instructions for Word users”, or our “Instructions for LaTeX users”

If you use a different editor that we do not have a template for, please try and follow the requirements above as much as possible and orient yourself on our example file.
